

The Brown University Club of Southwest Florida

What do you think of a religious community that follows a charismatic leader, believes that the earth exists within a hollow sphere, and requires celibacy of its adherents?

Isn't going to last long, is it?

But, the Koreshan Unity was embraced by followers of Cyrus Teed in a wooded Estero community from 1894 until the last member deeded the property to the State of Florida in 1961.

The Club will tour Koreshan State Park on Wednesday, February 15 at 10:30 am. $4 for a car with 1 occupant and $5 for a car with multiple occupants. Car pools encouraged. $2 per person for the tour. Meet at the park, 3800 Corkscrew Road, Estero. Afterwards, join us for lunch at the nearby Pelican Sound clubhouse. Lunch can be paid by credit card.

To reserve a spot, please contact Lodge McKee at 239.592.3358 or lodge.mckee@premiersir.com. Tell him how many attendees and if you will stay for lunch.
