

The Brown University Club of Southwest Florida

Guided Tour of Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary

with renowned birders Dr. Jerry Jackson and Sally Woliver

on Wednesday, February 2

9:30-11:30 then lunch at Heritage Bay Clubhouse

Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary is one of Audubon's gems – it is located off Immokalee Road 15 miles east of I-75. Turn left right after the big bend at the Corkscrew sign on state road 849 and then turn left onto Sanctuary Road West (374 Sanctuary Road).

Lunch is at the Heritage Bay Clubhouse where Carol and Stan Woolf are members – on the right on Immokalee as your return toward Naples; pay with credit card.

RSVP Judy Hushon (judyhushon@aol.com) to let me know how many are coming. The following text explains how to order your tickets:

- Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary only accepts advance on-line reservations, as they are limiting the number of people who can be on the Boardwalk at any given time. No walk-ins accepted.
- Here's the link to register for both Corkscrew members and visitors: <https://tickets.audubon.org/corkscrew/events/cf871d94-540e-5878-f941-cb9fe0803c4f>
- Corkscrew requires masks inside the Blair Visitor Center and if you are near people on the Boardwalk.

Other information from Corkscrew's website:

- Follow one-way boardwalk trail signs.
- Social distancing markers are installed. Please follow CDC social distancing guidelines by staying six feet apart.
- Hand sanitizing stations are available.
- Water refilling stations available near the restrooms.
- A complimentary wheelchair is available upon request.
- If you are sick, please stay home.

Wear comfortable shoes, bug spray??
